PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

KeySpan LNG, LP ("KLNG"), owns a facility located in Providence, Rhode Island, for the storage of liquefied natural gas ("LNG"). KLNG renders a storage service for customers by receiving LNG at the facility for storage and by redelivering such gas to the customer, either in liquid phase or in gaseous phase after regasification.

It is the policy of KLNG to provide storage service only under written contract acceptable to KLNG after consideration of its commitments to others, availability of storage capacity, and other factors deemed pertinent by KLNG. If any such contract is to become operative only upon performance of certain precedent conditions, it is the policy of KLNG to execute a separate written agreement covering the conditions to be satisfied before the contract for storage of LNG becomes operative.

This FERC Gas Tariff is filed in compliance with Part 154 of the Commission's Regulations under the Natural Gas Act. Nothing in this tariff is intended to inhibit the formation or use of market centers.

(b) The volume of gas shall be determined in accordance with, but not limited to, the published recommendations of the American Gas Association and the American National Standards Institute as KLNG deems to be in accordance with accepted industry practice.

(c) The atmospheric pressure shall be assumed to be 14.4 pounds per square inch, irrespective of actual elevation or location of the point of measurement above sea level, or variations in such atmospheric pressure.

- (h) The Total Heating Value per cubic foot of British thermal units shall be determined by the combustion in a Cutler-Hammer or an equally efficient recording calorimeter, or by some other acceptable method when in KLNG's judgment the quantities of gas being measured do not warrant a recording calorimeter.

- 8.3 LNG Deliveries and Receipts in Liquid Phase. LNG deliveries and receipts by KLNG in the liquid phase into or from trucks shall be measured in terms of weight or by some other acceptable unit and converted into Dth. The quantity so delivered or received shall be determined by having the truck weighed before and after loading or unloading on certified scales designated by KLNG, or by some other method acceptable to KLNG. LNG deliveries and receipts by KLNG pursuant to Section 4.8 of the General Terms and Conditions shall be measured in appropriate units and converted into Dth. The quantities of LNG so delivered or received shall be converted into Dth (reflecting Total Heating Value) in accordance with standards acceptable to KLNG applied in a practical manner.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection, where a Customer fails to make timely payments three times during any twelve-month period, the applicable interest rate for subsequent late payments during such twelve month period shall be twice the sum of the current national prime interest rate plus 1-1/2 percent, but not in excess of the maximum lawful rate. KLNG may waive the interest on a late payment made within five days of the due date where Customer has diligently paid its prior bills on time, and lateness in payment is of a nonrecurring nature.

Should Customer fail to pay the bill for thirty days after payment is due and such failure continues beyond such thirty days, KLNG, in addition to any other remedy it may have hereunder, may, after any necessary authorization by regulatory bodies having jurisdiction, suspend further receipt, storage, or delivery of gas for Customer until such amount is paid, subject to Subsection 11.3 below.

11.3 Disputed Bills. If Customer in good faith shall dispute the amount of any bill or parts thereof and shall pay to KLNG such amounts as it concedes to be correct, and at any time thereafter within thirty days of a demand made by KLNG shall furnish a good and sufficient surety bond guaranteeing payment, which may be reached either by agreement or judgment of the courts as may be the case, of the amount ultimately found due upon such bills after a final determination, then KLNG shall not be entitled to suspend further receipt, storage, or delivery of gas unless and until default be made in the conditions of such bond. Customer shall pay the portion of the bill not in dispute and shall provide documentation identifying the basis for the dispute. No payment by Customer of the amount of a disputed bill shall prejudice the right of Customer to claim an adjustment of the disputed bill. Customer shall pay interest on disputed portions of a bill for which Customer has withheld payment, and which ultimately is found due, at the rate specified in the first sentence of Subsection 11.2 above.

11.4 Extension of Time. If presentation of bills by KLNG is delayed after the seventh day of the month, then the time of payment shall be extended accordingly unless Customer is responsible for such delay.

11.5 Billing Errors. In the event an error is discovered in the amount billed in any statement rendered by KLNG, such error shall be adjusted within thirty days of the determination thereof, provided that claim therefor shall have been made in writing.

(a) Measurement data corrections shall be processed within six (6) months of the production month with a three-month rebuttal period.

(b) The time limitation for disputes of allocations shall be six (6) months from the date of the initial month-end allocation with a three-month rebuttal period.

12. TERM OF EXECUTED SERVICE AGREEMENTS

12.1 Firm Service Agreements. The primary term to be covered by an executed firm service agreement shall be as mutually agreed at the time of execution. Upon the expiration of the primary term, the term of such firm service agreement shall continue from year-to-year until terminated either by KLNG or by Customer upon twelve months prior written notice to the other specifying a termination date at the end of such agreed period or any yearly period thereafter unless the applicable service agreement provides otherwise.

12.2 Interruptible Service Agreements. The primary term to be covered by an executed interruptible service agreement shall be as mutually agreed at the time of execution. Upon the expiration of the primary term, the term of such interruptible service agreement shall continue from month-to-month until terminated either by KLNG or by Customer upon one month's prior written notice to the other specifying a termination date at the end of such agreed period or any monthly period thereafter unless the applicable service agreement provides otherwise.

13. PROCEDURES FOR AVOIDANCE OF PREGRANTED ABANDONMENT

13.1 Applicability. This section applies to service agreements executed pursuant to open access rate schedules governed by those provisions of the regulations promulgated by the FERC that pregrant abandonment authorization under Section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act.

13.2 Short-Term and Interruptible Agreements. A customer receiving service under a firm service agreement having a primary term of less than one year ("short-term service agreement") or under an interruptible service agreement, is not entitled to retain a right to service following the termination of such service agreement. Upon termination of a short-term service agreement or an interruptible service agreement, KLNG shall have all necessary abandonment authorization under the Natural Gas Act as of such termination date.

13.3 Long-Term Firm Agreements. To the extent a Customer satisfies the bid matching requirements of this section or KLNG and Customer reach agreement as contemplated by Section 13.9, such Customer may retain its capacity and continue to receive service under a firm service agreement with a primary term of one year or more ("long-term firm service agreement") for which KLNG has served notice of termination ("right of first refusal"). The right of first refusal shall be applicable only to (i) firm service agreements requiring the payment of the maximum applicable tariff rate with a primary term of at least twelve (12) months of consecutive service, or (ii) firm service agreements requiring the payment of the maximum applicable tariff rate with a primary term of more than one (1) year for service which is not available for twelve (12) consecutive months ("seasonal contracts"). Service agreements which include negotiated rates and/or discounted rates shall not be eligible for the right of first refusal, with the exception that any service agreement in effect on September 1, 2000, shall be granted a one-time exemption and the right of first refusal provisions described in this section shall apply; provided, however, that the right of first refusal shall be applicable to a service agreement entered into or re-executed to supersede a contract grandfathered under the prior provision only if the new service agreement meets the requirements of (i) and (ii) above. If Customer does not satisfy the bid matching requirements of this Section 13 or KLNG and Customer do not reach agreement as contemplated by Section 13.9, Customer shall no longer have, as of the termination date of the contract, rights under the long-term firm service agreement for which KLNG has served notice of termination, and KLNG shall have all necessary abandonment authorization under the Natural Gas Act except as provided in Section 13.9 below. Customer is not entitled to retain a right to service following a termination by the Customer of its long-term firm service agreement, and KLNG shall have all necessary abandonment authorization under the Natural Gas Act with respect to such service.

13.4 Notice and Posting. Within thirty days of the issuance by KLNG of a notice of termination of a long-term firm service agreement in accordance with the applicable service agreement, KLNG shall post on its Internet Web site the following information:

- (a) the specific quantity available under the terminated contract,
- (b) the date of expiration, and
- (c) the current maximum rate applicable to the terminated service.

13.5 Submission of Bids. Bids from Customers who desire service to be provided in whole or in part by the capacity to be made available upon termination of a long-term firm service agreement ("Potential Customers") must be received by KLNG no later than sixty days before the effective date of the termination of the service agreement noticed pursuant to Section 13.4. A bid shall be considered to be an offer to enter into a service agreement that remains open until retracted in writing or until KLNG accepts a competing bid. To be a valid bid, a bid must comply with the bid requirements set forth in Section 13.6. At the close of such bidding period, KLNG shall select among the valid bids the Best Bid, as determined pursuant to Section 13.7, and shall relay the relevant terms of such Best Bid to the Customer whose long-term firm service agreement is being terminated by KLNG. If Customer elects to match, as determined by Section 13.8, the Best Bid, the Customer shall be entitled to retain its capacity and continue to receive service under a long-term firm service agreement which reflects the matching of the relevant terms of the Best Bid. If Customer does not match the Best Bid, then Customer's existing long-term firm service agreement shall terminate and KLNG shall have all necessary abandonment authorization under the Natural Gas Act. In the event there is no Best Bid for Customer to match, Section 13.9 shall determine whether Customer shall be entitled to retain its capacity and continue to receive service.

- 13.6 Bid Requirements. To be a valid bid, a bid must be in writing and be executed by one authorized to sign contractual agreements on behalf of the Potential Customer, and the Potential Customer must in all other particulars have complied with the requirements for a request for service pursuant to Section 2 and meet the credit evaluation standards set forth in Section 3 of these General Terms and Conditions. If the Potential Customer's bid is matched or if the Potential Customer fails to satisfy all of KLNG's tariff provisions governing Customer eligibility, KLNG will refund the Potential Customer's prepayment supplied pursuant to Section 2 of the General Terms and Conditions. The prepayment will not be refunded if the bid is withdrawn by the Potential Customer. KLNG may reject all bids which would require KLNG to discount below a rate and discount term agreeable to KLNG.

13. PROCEDURES FOR AVOIDANCE OF PREGRANTED ABANDONMENT (continued)

- 13.7 Best Bid. KLNG shall review all bids from Potential Customers received pursuant to Section 13.5, which have not been rejected by KLNG, to determine which bid is the Best Bid. For purposes of this Section 13, the Best Bid shall be the bid with the longest term which offers the maximum applicable rate for the full term of the bid. If no bidder offers the maximum rate for the full term of the bid, the Best Bid shall be that bid that KLNG determines in its discretion, reasonably exercised, is likely to maximize its revenue earning potential, taking into account current and future anticipated demand for firm capacity.
- 13.8 Matching the Best Bid. Upon written notification from KLNG of the terms of the Best Bid, Customer shall have the right for a thirty-day period to notify KLNG whether the Customer is willing to match the Best Bid. Failure to notify KLNG in writing within said thirty-day period constitutes a non-revocable waiver of Customer's right to match the Best Bid. In order to match the Best Bid, Customer must agree to a rate equal to or greater than the rate set forth in the Best Bid and agree to execute a service agreement for a contract term equal to or longer than the contract term set forth in the Best Bid, up to a period of five (5) years; provided, however, the maximum rate an existing Customer must match is the maximum rate KLNG can charge under the agreement that is subject to the Customer's right to match the Best Bid.
- 13.9 Mutual Agreement. In the event KLNG does not receive any bids pursuant to Section 13.5 or KLNG rejects all bids received, KLNG and Customer may mutually agree upon the terms and conditions under which Customer shall be entitled to retain its capacity and continue to receive service. In the event KLNG and Customer have not reached agreement on the terms and conditions under which service will be extended before the termination date of the service agreement, at Customer's election, service for all or part of the contractual quantity will be extended for a term to be specified by the Customer, so long as Customer agrees to pay the maximum rate.

14. CAPACITY RELEASE

- 14.1 General. This section sets forth the sole means by which a Customer under any firm, open-access Part 284 service agreement with KLNG ("Releasing Customer") may release its capacity rights under a service agreement ("Existing Service Agreement"). Subject to the following provisions, firm capacity rights shall be released to KLNG for resale by it on a firm basis. This section is not applicable to any Customer whose service agreement has been executed pursuant to an individually certificated service.
- 14.2 Capacity Eligible for Release. A Customer under any firm rate schedule under Part 284 may release all or a part of its capacity under an Existing Service Agreement on a permanent or temporary basis, subject to recall if so specified. A Releasing Customer may propose a customer ("Proposed Customer") to obtain the Releasing Customer's released capacity, provided the Proposed Customer is an Approved Bidder.
- 14.3 Approved Bidders. To qualify as an Approved Bidder, a party must have been accepted by KLNG as satisfying the credit standards of Section 3 of these General Terms and Conditions and must continue to satisfy the credit standards of Section 3 when its bid is made and accepted. KLNG shall process applications for credit approval with diligence. KLNG shall maintain and make available upon request a list of Names of Approved Bidders. Any previously listed Approved Bidder that fails to continue to satisfy the standards of Section 3 shall be deleted from the list of Approved Bidders.
- 14.4 Release Procedures.
- (a) Notice by Releasing Customer. A Releasing Customer wanting to release capacity shall notify KLNG by telephone and facsimile (hereinafter called "Releasing Customer's Notice").

- (1) service agreement number and rate schedule;
- (2) whether the release is firm or recallable, and if recallable, whether the rights are on a full day or a partial day basis, the specifics of any recall right, and any reput methods and rights associated with returning the previously recalled capacity to the Replacement Customer;
- (3) the amount of storage capacity to be released;
- (4) the period of the release;
- (5) any other conditions of the release, including any agency arrangements;
- (6) identity of any Proposed Customer;

- (8) whether bids should be submitted in dollars and cents or percentages of maximum tariff rate;
- (9) the bid evaluation method which shall be, at the Releasing Customer's option, either one of the following three standard evaluation methods: highest rate, net revenue or present value; or alternative Releasing Customer defined bid evaluation methods; provided, however, that KLNG shall not be required to process the capacity release transaction using the standard process timeline should the Releasing Customer elect an alternate method of bid evaluation;

- (10) the Business Day on which the Bid Period will expire, if other than that determined in Section 14.4(b); and
 - (11) the expiration of the period within which the Proposed Customer may match the best bid, if other than that determined in Section 14.5(c). Releasing Customer shall not be allowed to specify an extension of the original Bid Period or the Prearranged deal Matching Period without posting a new release.
- (b) Posting Requirements and Bid Periods for Standard Releases Subject to Bidding. The Capacity Release timeline is applicable to all parties involved in the Capacity Release process; however, it is only applicable if 1) all information provided by the parties to the transaction is valid and the Replacement Customer has been determined to be credit worthy before the capacity release bid is tendered and 2) there are no special terms or conditions of the release. The term "Bid Period" shall mean the period during which bids may be submitted, commencing upon the posting of Releasing Customer's Notice and ending at the time specified below.
- (1) For short term releases (less than five months), offers should be tendered by 1:00 p.m. CT on the day before nominations are due. The Bid Period shall end no later than 2:00 p.m. CT on the same day or at 2:00 p.m. CT on any subsequent day as specified in Customer's Notice, whichever is elected by Customer. The evaluation period begins at 2:00 p.m. CT during which contingency is eliminated, the determination of the best bid is made, and ties are broken. The evaluation period ends at 3:15 p.m. CT. The match or award is communicated by 3:15 p.m. CT. If the Prearranged Customer's bid is not the "best bid," KLNG shall allow such Prearranged Customer a Matching Period of forty-five (45) minutes from 3:15 p.m. CT to 4:00 p.m. CT on the day the Bid Period ends, or such later time as permitted by Customer's Notice, to determine whether to match the "best bid" and to notify KLNG of its decision. KLNG will finalize all contractual arrangements by 5:00 p.m. CT on the day the Matching Period ends, or if no Matching Period, on the day the Bid Period ends or such later time as permitted by Customer's Notice.

The evaluation period begins at 2:00 p.m. CT during which contingency is eliminated, the determination of the best bid is made, and ties are broken. The evaluation period ends at 3:15 p.m. CT. The match or award is communicated by 3:15 p.m. CT. If the Releasing Customer specifies a bid evaluation methodology other than highest rate, net revenue or present value, or any other special terms or conditions, the above timeline shall apply; provided, however, one additional Business Day will be added to the evaluation period. Such extended evaluation period shall cause the gas day to be at least one day later than under the timeline set forth in Section 14.4(b)(1) or Section 14.4(b)(2).
- (d) Notice by KLNG. Releasing Customer's Notice, including the identity of the Releasing Customer, shall be posted on KLNG's Internet Web site until the expiration of the applicable Bid Period. Bids shall be submitted to KLNG either by telephone or by facsimile and posted on KLNG's Internet Web site during the Bid Period. Upon request prior to the close of a Bid Period, KLNG will disclose the terms of submitted bids (other than the bidders' names). The bidder shall provide confirmation by facsimile prior to posting by KLNG on its Internet Web site of the terms of any bid given by telephone. Bids must meet the minimum terms of Releasing Customer's Notice in order to be considered a valid bid. Invalid bids shall be rejected. KLNG shall select the bid to be accepted in accordance with Section 14.5(b). If permitted by Releasing Customer's Notice, and subject to the provisions thereof, any bid may be made contingent upon the bidder's acquiring related upstream or downstream arrangements identified in the bid. Any bidder making such a contingent bid shall confirm that the contingency has been satisfied or eliminated according to the procedures set forth in Releasing Customer's Notice, failing which the bid shall no longer be considered a valid bid.

14.5 Effect of Notices and Bids.

- (a) The posting of Releasing Customer's Notice shall constitute an invitation to entertain bids on the Releasing Customer's firm storage capacity rights and obligations pursuant to its terms and the terms herein, but shall not constitute an offer by KLNG. A bid shall constitute an offer by the bidding party to accept from KLNG such rights and obligations, and shall remain open until KLNG accepts the bid or a competing bid, unless retracted by the bidder prior to the close of the Bid Period by any means that meets the requirements of the tariff and the Releasing Customer's terms and conditions. Bids will be legally binding on the Replacement Customer or Prearranged Customer until written or telephonic notice of withdrawal is received by KLNG. Bids may be revised during the Bid Period, and shall be deemed received as of the time of the last revision; provided, however, that no bidder shall maintain more than one bid for the same capacity. No bid may be resubmitted or revised in order to submit a lower bid.
- (b) Releasing Customer's Notice shall constitute authorization for KLNG to accept bids by posting notice of such acceptance on its Internet Web site. Releasing Customer may withdraw Releasing Customer's Notice at any time prior to the close of the Bid Period associated with Releasing Customer's Notice, where unanticipated circumstances justify the withdrawal and no bids meeting the minimum conditions have been made. The Releasing Customer's notice will be legally binding on the Releasing Customer until the written or telephonic notice of withdrawal is received by KLNG. The reason for withdrawal must be submitted to KLNG for posting.

In the event Releasing Customer has not specified the bid evaluation method, KLNG shall accept bids in accordance with the following:

- (iii) If there is more than one valid bid and all such bids are not identical in terms, KLNG shall accept the offer that yields the highest present value, taking into account the price, volume and term of the bid and, where the terms of the competing bids are different, the present value of the revenue stream expected from any replacement contract at the end of a shorter-term bid. For purposes of determining the present value of a bid, KLNG shall use only the reservation charge (including reservation charges stated on a volumetric basis) and shall use a discount rate equal to the then effective interest rate prescribed by the Commission for purposes of refunds. If more than one bid may be accepted under this subsection (iii), KLNG shall accept the bid that was received first in time.

reservation surcharges, and other fixed costs ("Fixed Charges"), but not charges related to usage, actually paid by a Customer and received by KLNG which are owed in respect of the capacity rights released by that Releasing Customer and acquired by that Customer from KLNG under a New Service Agreement pursuant to Releasing Customer's release (but not pursuant to subsequent releases of the same capacity), even if greater than the Fixed Charges obligation of the Releasing Customer, up to the maximum rate for the released capacity. Customer under a New Service Agreement shall be liable to KLNG for all obligations incurred thereunder, including Fixed Charges and charges related to usage. Any Replacement Customer shall be entitled to receive refunds to the extent the rate paid by it is subsequently determined to be in excess of a just and reasonable rate; provided, however, that if the Releasing Customer is subject to a discounted rate and received credits attributable to Fixed Charges that KLNG is required to refund, KLNG shall be entitled to reverse such credits and shall be required to refund such amounts to the Replacement Customer only to the extent actually collected back from the Releasing Customer.

- (b) The service agreement between KLNG and each Releasing Customer shall remain in full force and effect and unmodified, as if the Release from that Releasing Customer and related New Service Agreement had never been entered into, except (i) the Releasing Customer shall not be entitled to any of the rights under the service agreement which are released by it for the period set forth in the Release and (ii) the Releasing Customer shall be entitled to a credit as provided in this subsection. - (d) KLNG may rely upon and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, notice, or other document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties.
- (e) KLNG shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, notice, or other document, but KLNG, in its reasonable discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit.

16. TERMINATION FOR DEFAULT

16.1 Termination of Service. If either KLNG or Customer shall fail to perform any of the covenants or obligations imposed upon it or them under and by virtue of an applicable rate schedule or effective service agreement, then the other party may at its option terminate such agreement by proceeding as follows. The party not in default shall provide written notice to the party in default stating specifically the cause for terminating the agreement and declaring it to be the intention of the party giving the notice to terminate the same; thereupon the party in default shall have thirty days after receipt of such notice to remedy or remove the cause or causes stated in the notice, and if within the thirty-day period the party in default does so remove and remedy said cause or causes and fully indemnifies the party not in default for any and all consequences of such breach, by a good and sufficient indemnity bond or otherwise, then such notice shall be withdrawn and the agreement shall continue in full force and effect. In case the party in default does not so remedy and remove the cause or causes or does not so indemnify the party giving the notice for any and all consequences of such breach, within the thirty-day period, then, after any necessary authorization by regulatory bodies having jurisdiction, the agreement shall become void at the expiration of said period, provided that notice of termination has not been withdrawn prior thereto. Any cancellation of such agreement pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall be without prejudice to the right of KLNG to collect any amounts then due to it for service prior to the time of cancellation, and shall be without prejudice to the right of Customer to receive any service for which it has paid but has not received, although entitled thereto, prior to the time of cancellation, and without waiver of any remedy to which the party not in default may be entitled for violations of such agreement.

KLNG shall obtain the appropriate regulatory authorization prior to terminating service to any customer. KLNG's failure to invoke its right to terminate an agreement for default shall not be construed as a waiver of KLNG's right to terminate service during any other period when Customer is in violation of the terms of this tariff or of Customer's service agreement.

17. FORCE MAJEURE

17.1 Relief from Liability. Neither party shall be taken to have breached its obligations under the service agreement, the applicable rate schedule, or these General Terms and Conditions by reason of any act, omission or circumstance occasioned by or in consequence of any acts of God, strikes, lockouts, acts of the public enemy, wars, blockades, insurrections, riots, epidemics, landslides, lightning, earthquakes, fires, storms, floods, washouts, arrests and restraints of rulers and peoples, civil disturbances, explosions, damage, breakage or other material impairment to machinery, facilities, or lines of pipe, revocation or cancellation of permits or licenses, interruption in or unavailability of utilities, loss or unavailability of insurance, the binding order of any court or governmental authority which has been resisted in good faith by all reasonable legal means, and any other cause, whether of the kind

17.3 Proration of Impaired Capacity. The provisions of Section 18 of these General Terms and Conditions shall govern the apportionment of available capacity when such available capacity is impaired so that KLNG is unable to store for Customer the quantities of gas provided by effective service agreements.
